

CONSTITUTION

NAME:

The name of the society is: RICHMOND PHOTO CLUB SOCIETY (herein: the Society).
It is a not-for-profit community society, governed by this Constitution and Bylaws.

SOCIETY PURPOSE:

To foster and promote interest, participation and improvement in photography in the city of Richmond and surrounding areas by way of a variety of Society activities such as: regular activity meetings consisting of evaluation and critiquing of members' photographs by qualified persons; guest speakers, and workshops; field trips; mounting public exhibitions of photography; sponsoring inter club photographic competitions; participating in photographic competitions locally, nationally, and internationally; participation in community based activities where a photographic record is required; encouraging members to become qualified judges and volunteer their services to other organizations; and provision of guest speakers to other organizations